Newsletter

Delhi Public School Gaya made its auspicious beginning in the month of June 2013 with a record strength from Pre - Nursery to Class VII. The School prides itself of a progressing infrastructure with a fleet of 20 new buses, playstation and proposed swimming pool.

DPS Gaya offers a nationalistic curriculum in an environment that fosters excellence in school life amidst wide open spaces. It also promotes the natural ability of children to learn through development of their cognitive and thinking skills and ensures that students are provided all opportunities for honing their co-curricular inclinations through sports, performing and visual arts, oratory and other creative pursuits.

Message from Pro-Vice Chairman

Sanjeev Kumar
Pro-Vice Chairman

It is my immense pleasure in welcoming you all to Delhi Public School, Gaya. The school promises to replicate the excellence that the other Delhi Public Schools in India and abroad have shown in providing a holistic education to its students with great emphasis on traditional values.

We have created an excellent educational atmosphere. Added to this, to encourage sports and extra-curricular activities among the students, we are offering various facilities.

We have a disciplined, talented, dedicated, caring and charming team of staff, devoted to helping students develop intellectual, artistic, and personal interests contributing to holistic growth of each individual. Our teachers are experienced and work as a squad to make DPS Gaya a very special place.

Message from Principal

Education is a continuous celebration. The education system at Delhi Public School Gaya, is an intense search for the vision of what can be which in turn draws out the inherent force and strength present in every one of us. Sincere efforts are made here to recognize and give shape to the quintessence of every pupil that transforms an individual into a harmonious personality.

The strength of the education system at DPS Gaya is the presence of creative and innovative atmosphere nurtured by the self-exploration to enquire, to experiment and to find the truth in the best spirit of comradeship. The school experience at Delhi Public School Gaya amalgamates a holistic blend of cultural, literary and extracurricular activities combined with a vast array of games and sports activities to provoke and ignite the individual spark that is so unique to each one of us.

We believe in providing the platform which challenges the young minds and instills in them a pride and glory to strive towards attaining the unknown yet fulfilling journey called life.

Abhishek Kumar
Principal

events

The school has hosted a string of commoving events where students and teachers colluded equally to bestow some breathtaking performances and memorable moments for everyone to cherish for a long time.

Independence Day

With the fervor of Independence the institution gathered to celebrate its first ever Independence Day. Our Principal in his sententious speech made the students perceive the true meaning of independence and nationalism. The show brought various Indian cultures together in one stage where students emblazoned their aptness in musical instruments, dance and intonated the euphonic songs on Independence.

Teachers' Day

Our mentors celebrated the birthday of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, the second President of India, Bharat Ratna Awardee and one of the most influential scholars of comparative religion and philosophy. In school assembly, our teachers were welcomed and felicitated. A few rounds of Antakshari brought the best out of them and fun started rolling in the hall with dance, games and songs. With a pledge of being a true mentor and a perfect role model for the students the event became yet another pleasant memory.

Pool Lunch

The school hosted a unique program to inculcate the habit of sharing and understand the sense of togetherness in students. They also learnt the importance of healthy diet and in that belief they all gathered food and invited the Principal and the teachers to share lunch with them. The excitement lasted all day with everyone contributing their best. While everyone had more food than their appetite but they were still asking for more.

Childrens' Day

In a special program, Delhi Public School Gaya paid homage to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru on his birthday. Being a special day, it was the turn for teachers to showcase their rare talent apart from academics. Much to everyone's surprise they sang, they danced and they set the stage on fire with their exuberant performance. The applauds and the noise showed how much the students were entertained to the core. It truly was a show that will keep their memories ringing for quite some time. The Principal on this occasion made a special mention for the underprivileged children that we should not forget them and should turn up for their help whenever possible.

Spreading Wings

Our tiny tots displayed their amazing talents in a variety of activities involving development of motor and social skills. They showcased creativity in projects like Expressions, Best out of Waste, We Care, Science is Fun, Colour Your Imagination and Share n Care.

Mahalaya Mahotsav

The young students displayed their consecration when they paid obeisance to Goddess Durga in a divine fashion on the occasion of Durga Puja. It was heartening to watch as the little ones presented a range of devotional songs and dance acts as the program flowed with cultural and devotional elegance. Indeed, a beautiful show stressing the eternal truth that good always prevails over the evil.

Diwali Celebration

The festival of lights was celebrated in a great style in a special assembly in the month of October, 2013. The program started on an auspicious note where our Hon'ble Pro-vice Chairmen and Respected Principal lighted the lamp. Dedicated to the rich cultural heritage of our country, the program consisted of devotional dances and songs which effortlessly created the spiritual ambience. And a soul satisfying treat to the viewers. The costumes and the performances were of the highest quality making it a memorable affair.
