MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Students,

Summer is the time, I know, you all wait with bated breath for two reasons; the longest holidays of the year and "mangoes". On a serious note let me remind you all about the alacrity of the prevailing weather conditions. Hope you all are very safely enjoying the days with your siblings, cousins, parents and other family members... travelling to different geographies and climes. In the midst of all splash and zest always do some reading and learning; especially the Vacation Assignments afforded to you by all your subject teachers. Let me wish you all a very fabulous time and close this note for now with the anticipation to see you all on the other side of this break...

May God bless us all...

Inter-house Elocution Competition

Joseph Conrad famously said, “He who wants to persuade should put his trust not in the right argument, but in the right word. The power of sound has always been greater than the power of sense.” These famous words assumed great significance in the backdrop of the Inter-House Elocution Competition, organized by Delhi Public School Gaya on April 21, 2023. The School Auditorium witnessed fierce competition among the participants representing their respective houses. Students from Classes IX to XII mesmerized the audience with absolute brilliance of their oratory skills. The participants were adjudged on a range of parameters such as voice modulation, clarity, expression and stage presence. All the participants partook with engaging enthusiasm. In the wake of some intense competition amongst the participants of all the houses, vying for the top honours; Mannat Verma (X- B) of Ashoka House grabbed the first position. The second position was secured by Shrisay Singh (X-H) of Chanakya House whereas the third position was clinched by Jyotsana Raj (XII- D) of Aryabhata House. ## International Mother's Day Celebration 2023

Abraham Lincoln said, "All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." International Mother's Day is celebrated annually on the second Sunday of May. The day celebrates the purest bond between mothers and their children across the globe. A mother is an epitome of indomitable perseverance, courage and wisdom. Delhi Public School Gaya and its Junior Wing celebrated International Mothers' Day 2023 on May 13, 2023 to pay obeisance to all the mothers for their unconditional love and sacrifice for their children and families. ## THE DARK NIGHT

I am alone in this dark night
Waiting for the sunrise
In this field of dandelions
And for hope there is no sign
Beautiful scenery around me is not permanent
To destroy mother nature humans are determinant
I hope we can save the world one day
For this why don't we start from today?

Footnote - This poem talks about the dangers mother nature is facing on a regular basis and the after effects of those.

NICHT ALLES, WAS GOLD IST, FUNKELT

Nicht alles, was Gold ist, funkelt,
Nicht jeder, der wandert, verlorn,
Das Alte wird nicht verdunkelt,
Noch Wurzeln der Tiefe erfroren.
Aus Asche wird Feuer geschlagen,
Aus Schatten geht Licht hervor;
Heil wird geborstenes Schwert,
Und König, der die Krone verlor.

Von:- Shailendra Kumar Pathak

ALL THAT IS GOLD DOES NOT GLITTER
All that is gold does not glitter
Not all those who wander are lost
The old that is strong does not wither
Deep roots are not reached by the frost.
From the ashes a fire shall be woken
A light from the shadows shall spring
Renewed be the blade that was broken
The crownless again shall be king.
