D.P.S,Gaya Celebrates its "6th Annual Aryabhata House Function"

The Sixth Annual Cultural House Function commenced with gorgeous sensation by the Aryabhata House on the concluding day of 7th Feb, 2020 with grandeur and gaiety. The audience witnessed an amalgamation of talent amidst great euphoria and enthusiasm. Based on various themes, a plethora of exuberant performances was presented by the students. The two and a half hour event replete with music, dazzling dances and hues of colours amidst great zest, vibrancy and elation brought to life the colours of childhood.

The world renowned exponent of Bharatanatyam Smt. Priya Venkataraman, graced the occasion as the esteemed chief guest and Sri Ram Naresh Sharma Ji, Chairman Magadh Educational Trust as the guest of honour. The special guest of the programme was Mr. Sanjay Kumar DIG CRPF (Gaya).

The programme commenced with the prayers of Goddess Saraswati and the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, followed by the welcome song "In Prayer of the Lord".

The ebullient dancers of the house presented "Mindfulness" depicting rich radiant and vibrant cultural dance of our country.

It was followed by the highly motivating words of wisdom, knowledge and spirit by the Honourable Principal Sir Mr. Sanjeet Soni. He welcomed the august gathering and presented the school report accentuating the progress of the school throughout the year. He congratulated all the students for their achievements and also appreciated the hard work and effort of each and every individual to make the programme a grand success.

It was followed by the "Welcome Speech" by Ms. Nobonita, House Warden Senior Wing. The Annual Report of the house was released by Mr. Nishant House Warden, Junior Wing.

Everyone present was enlightened by the precious words of advice and appreciation by the Chief Guest during her address to the audience. She emphasized on the co-curricular activities and appreciated the effort of the school. She also appreciated the hard work of the teachers and support of the parents in making the function successful.

The English Choir enthralled the audience with soulful rendition of the music, "Sweet Mellifluousness" which was a harmony of instrumental and vocal.

Nobody in the world could keep oneself away from loving and adoring the toddlers. What if you get to see tiny tots dancing gleefully? The lil' angels of DPS Gaya are no exceptions. The tiny tots left the audience spell bound with their meticulous performance of scintillating action dance "Foot Tapping"

The dignitaries were astounded by the students who played the drama "Even Gold can be spicy".

It was followed by an astounding and glorious visual treat which was truly jaw dropping, the Yoga postures which is a science of youthfulness, well being and integrating the body, mind and soul.

The cultural fiesta was followed by the prize distribution ceremony to honour and appreciate the achievers who not only excelled in academics but also brought laurels to the school in various other activities.

The school didn't forget to highlight the importance of colourful Haryana as the students performed Haryanvi folk dance. The entire audience went frenzy as soon as the Haryanvi folk song "Gunga Dhamora" was played.

The most riveting performance which drew an unceasing applause was the dance drama "Labour of Innocence."

The House warden of Primary Wing Ms. Pooja anchored the proceedings and delivered the vote of thanks.

The curtains on the celebrations came down with the singing of National Anthem. Over all the celebration concluded on a happy note encouraging the students to establish future milestones in the journey of success.

D.P.S, Gaya Celebrates its "6th Annual Buddha House Function".

House Functions give a platform to the students to not only display their talent but their team spirit, passion and team work as the members of one house. The House Function of Buddha House was celebrated with great verve and vigour at Delhi Public School, Gaya on February 6, 2020. The entire school participated wholeheartedly towards the success of this grand event. The triumph was made possible by the relentless efforts of our Principal Mr Sanjeet Soni.

Mr. Abhishek Singh, IAS, District Magistrate Gaya was the chief guest and Shri Ram Naresh Sharma Ji, Chairman, Magadh Educational Trust was the guest of honour. Our guardian, Shri Ram Mangal Sharma Ji, also graced the occasion. They were visibly impressed by the impeccable performance showcased by the students across different grades.

The cultural programme commenced with welcome song wherein the parents and the guests were welcomed with elation and gaiety; a mesmerising rendition of Raag Bhairav, the Indian classical raga of Bhairav that, a sampurna raga traditionally performed in the morning and also as the beginning piece in concerts.

It was followed by the Welcome Speech by Ms Kiranmala, House warden of Buddha House (Juniors). The annual report of the house was released by Mr. Anchit Bajaj, House warden of Buddha House (Seniors).

The spellbinding rendition of Raag Ahir Bhairav was fittingly succeeded by the soulful instrumental presentation by the students, which in turn acted as a dazzling precedent for the next recital, which was the rendering of western classical tunes by the English Choir that reverberated in the DPS premises.

The talented students of Buddha House mesmerized everyone present with their performances showcasing their talent in Classical Dance, Freestyle Hip Hop and Dance Rendition of the episode of "Sita Haran" from the great epic Ramayana.

The highlight of the event was the dance by the tiny tots, which reiterated the fact that Childhood is the world of miracle or of magic: it is as if creation rose luminously out of the night, all new and fresh and astonishing.

The next performance was 'Chhattisgarhi Folk Dance' an extremely well-choreographed piece, which proved how vibrant and rich our heritage is.

Prize distribution ceremony was conducted to felicitate and recognise the talent of students in various fields like academics, art, culture, sports, etc. Chief Guest, Mr. Abhishek Singh, in his address spoke of the laudable efforts of Delhi Public School, Gaya in the field of education in Gaya. He also highlighted parents role in modern times.

Vote of Thanks was proposed by the Primary Wing House Warden, Ms. Priety Singh. She congratulated all the participants for exhibiting a brilliant show and the parents for motivating the children to participate in such events.

The event closed with the National Anthem. It was indeed a spectacular display of talent and fervour.
