2021-22 DECEMBER

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Creative pursuits are part and parcel of the entire spectrum of deliberations that define on one hand and encompass on the other which are employed to educate the students in any institution of learning. Newsletter is the home to reflect upon the information gathered due to the culmination of all the regular and ongoing curricular and co-curricular activities of the school.

It is thus, an imperative which I encourage amongst the young learners to partake and also propagate with a very holistic approach.

In this issue of our Newsletter we have covered all the aspects of the academic dispensation as well as the participations of young minds and the outcomes there of.

Hope, you read through, relish and make your opinions known.

With my best wishes to the entire team.

A Beautiful Reflection of Winter Season

“Peace on earth will come to stay
when we live Christmas every day.”

Christmas is not only a season of rejoicing but also of reflection. Delhi Public School, Gaya always puts consistent efforts to celebrate all the festivities by bringing wonderful activities for the kids.

Activities like 'A Beautiful Reflection of Winter Season' took place on 03.12.2021 for Preparatory classes. A wonderful 'Christmas tree making activity' was organised for all the classes to acquaint the children with Christmas festival as well as for creating an ambience to develop their motor skills. Mr. Satyendra Mishra, the Principal of the school, expressed his overwhelming satisfaction for organising these kinds of activities to nurture the children.

In-House Training Session for Teachers

An In-House training session was organized by Delhi Public School, Gaya on 'Good Touch and Bad Touch' for the teachers of Pre-Nursery to Class V. The session was conducted by honourable Principal, Mr. Satyendra Kumar Mishra. In his insightful session he made the teachers aware of the safe and unsafe zones by showcasing them on a doll. He emphasized on the utterance of 'No' to the bad touches. He highlighted the concept of sharing these issues with family and teachers and also asked to prepare a Safe Circle. The session was interactive and it was instructed to the teachers to inculcate this awareness among the students.

Srimad Bhagavad Gita Jayanti

~ C E L E B R A T I O N ~

Lord Krishna is the eternal embodiment of all elixir on this planet. He is the One; He being the lone proponent of all that was, is and will be "Plausible Pragmatism" for conducting the human existence in consonance with the unending Universe.

Keeping the ethos and ethics of the never ending values of Bhagwad Gita, we celebrated the Gita Jayanti in the School Auditorium for both the shifts today.

Gita Pujan was conducted by Mr. Shyam and Mr. Chandan in which Honourable Principal Sir and HM Sir participated after the sacred lamp lighting ceremony.

"Gita Saar" was recited by the students very beautifully. After the Knowledge filled speech by Mr. S. K.Mishra, our Principal Sir, Shanti Mantra was chanted. As always, we at DPS Gaya endeavoured to establish our leadership in this auspicious celebration in the state of Bihar as an awareness building effort.

Hon'ble Principal Sir shared his knowledge nuggets in a very interesting way by drawing the attention of one and all towards the facts of Gita and where all that had happened so many thousands of years ago.
