MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear DPS Gaya Family

As 2023 draws to a close, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you for making it a year of inspiration and shared accomplishments. In the tapestry of CBSE education at Delhi Public School Gaya, this year has been woven with the threads of resilience, collaboration, and a collective dedication to learning.

Our students have showcased remarkable determination, and our educators have been steadfast in guiding them on this educational journey. As we step into the New Year, let's carry the lessons of this year with us – celebrating successes, embracing challenges, and nurturing the spirit of curiosity.

Your unwavering support has been a cornerstone of our community. Together, let's look forward to a new chapter filled with fresh opportunities for growth, learning, and collaboration.

Wishing you all a joyful conclusion to 2023 and a wonderful start to 2024!

May God bless us all...

Dressed to Impress: The Grandeur of Fancy Dress Competition

Helen Keller said, “The most beautiful world is entered through imagination.” Apart from dressing up as different characters or objects, Fancy Dress Competition assumes a great significance for the young kids in their formative years in school. It substantially augments their imaginative ingenuity through impersonation of the individuality of characters or objects they portray on the stage. Delhi Public School Gaya organized the First Day of the “Fancy Dress Competition” on 1st December 2023 with unrestrained effervescence. At the outset, the Chief Guest of the programme, Mrs. Arti Singh, a renowned Philosopher and spouse of Inspector General of Police, Magadh Range, Mr. Kshatraneel Singh along with the Principal of the school, Mr. Satyendra Mishra was accorded floral welcome followed by the lighting of the spiritual lamp. Mellifluous rendition of the “Welcome Song” by the students of Class II enthralled the audience. The honourable Principal of the school in his address applauded the relentless efforts of teachers and mentors for instilling conviction in young kids, enabling them to perform on the stage. He termed the event as a celebration of enormous talent and creativity. Day One (morning shift) of the competition witnessed charismatic performances from the tiny tots of Pre-Nursery and Nursery. The young kids dressed-up as various characters or objects and spoke about them with the finesse of oratory skills. The young toddlers of Pre-Nursery beautifully bedecked themselves as Cartoon Characters, Birds and Insects, Plants and Flowers and Characters from Nursery Rhymes. Meanwhile, participants from Nursery portrayed themselves as Tribal People of Different Indian States, Great Indian ISRO Scientists, Sports Personalities, Aquatic Animals and Endangered Animals. Closing Dance performed by the students of Class II with exceptional finesse on the stage beautifully summed up the entire event.

Fancy Dress Competition: A Blend of Fashion and Creativity

The renowned philosopher Jean-Jacques Rousseau said, "Imagination is the beginning of creation. You imagine what you desire, you will what you imagine and at last you create what you will." Fancy dress competition is not merely wearing fanciful dresses, but a vital aspect of learning in the formative years of young children in school. It substantially augments the imaginative prowess of young toddlers through nuanced imitation of the individuality of characters or objects they portray on the stage. First Day (2nd Shift) of the "Fancy Dress Competition" was held at Delhi Public School Gaya on 1st December 2023 with unparalleled exuberance. To begin with, the esteemed Chief Guest of the event Shri Ram Naresh Sharma, Chairman of Magadh Educational Trust, Gaya and the honourable Principal of the school, Mr. Satyendra Mishra were extended floral welcomes which was followed by the lighting of the celestial lamp. The soulful rendition of the "Welcome Song" by the students of Class II resonated with warmth and joy in the school's auditorium. The respected Principal of the school presented an enlightening address to the audience. He reaffirmed that the event was a testament to the collective efforts of the management, teachers, students and parents. He reinforced that education is not just the accumulation of degrees or diplomas, but also how we perform in our day-to-day life. The afternoon shift of the Day One of the competition witnessed enchanting performances from the students of Prep. The young kids dressed-up as various characters or objects and spoke about them with the finesse of oratory skills. Students of Prep portrayed themselves as famous Historical Personalities, Characters from Galaxy, Characters from Community Helpers, Different Dance Forms and Gallantry Award Martyrs. Beautifully choreographed Closing Dance presented by the students of Class II brought a curtain on the event.

The Sparkles of the Fancy Dress Competition

George Bernard Shaw said, "Imagination is the beginning of creation. You imagine what you desire, you will what you imagine, and at last, you create what you will." Contrary to the widespread perception of purely being a fun activity, Fancy Dress Competition provides a platform to preschoolers to exhibit their imaginative and oratory acumen on the stage. After the resounding success of the first day of the Fancy Dress Competition, Delhi Public School Gaya organized the second day of the competition on 2nd December 2023 with more heightened exuberance. The morning shift of the competition witnessed incredible performances from the students of Class I. To begin with, the distinguished Chief Guest of the event Dr. Amit Srivastava, Associate Professor, Indian Institute of Management, Bodhgaya and the honourable Principal of the school, Mr. Satyendra Mishra were accorded floral welcome followed by the lighting of the auspicious lamp. "Welcome Song" presented by the students of class II enthralled the audience. The respected Principal of the school in his address extolled the young toddlers and their dedicated mentors for putting in their indefatigable efforts in organizing the spectacular extravaganza. He exemplified the competition as a celebration of immense talent and creative ingenuity. Young toddlers of Class I dressed-up themselves as different characters and enlightened the audience about them with a palatable touch of oratory skills. The audience marveled at the unmatched portrayal of Famous Personalities and Living Legends of the World, Freedom Fighters, Different State Representatives of India and Former Presidents of India. They also portrayed themselves as Characters from the Novels of Jane Austen, William Shakespeare and Charles Dickens. The immaculately choreographed closing Dance performed by the students of Class II brought an end to the grand extravaganza.

Fancy Dress Competition: Fashionistas with Creative Finesse

The sparkling vivacity of the "Fancy Dress Competition" segued smoothly into the Second Shift of the competition on 2nd December 2023. The final shift of the grand extravaganza witnessed exhilarating performances from another group of students of Class-I. The event commenced with the presentation of floral bouquet to the esteemed Chief Guest of the programme Shri Ram Naresh Sharma, Chairman of Magadh Educational Trust, Gaya and the honourable Principal of the school, Mr. Satyendra Mishra which was followed by the lighting of the spiritual lamp. The esteemed Principal of the school underlined the importance of creativity and imaginative skills in young toddlers. He termed the event as an amalgamation of talent and creativity. Young toddlers of class I dressed-up themselves as different characters and captivated the audience through their unmatched portrayal of Famous Personalities and Living Legends of the World, Freedom Fighters, Different State Representatives of India and Former Presidents of India. They also portrayed themselves as Characters from the Novels of Jane Austen, William Shakespeare and Charles Dickens.

National Youth Parliament Competition/Kishore Sabha 2023

Dr. B. R. Ambedkar said, "Democracy is not merely a form of Government. It is primarily a mode of associated living, of conjoint communicated experience. It is essentially an attitude of respect and reverence towards our fellow men." Delhi Public School Gaya organized National "Youth Parliament Competition/Kishore Sabha" on 29th November, 2023 on the theme "Ideas for a Better Tomorrow: India for the World". Students from Classes IX to XII assiduously participated in the competition. At the outset the Chief Guest of the programme, Dr. Sudhanshu Kumar Jha, Head of Department, The Department of Historical Studies and Archaeology was accorded a floral welcome. With the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, the further proceedings of the event unfolded. The Chief Guest of the programme, Dr. Sudhanshu Kumar Jha in his address, expressed his deep concern over the democracy deficit in India, but strongly asserted that the deliberations of the NYPC 2023 will become the catalyst for positive change in Indian parliamentary democracy. He remarked that the rise of India in the new global order will redefine diplomacy and geopolitics. He encouraged the students to embrace their responsibilities and become the harbinger of hope for our nation. The honourable Principal of the school, Mr. Satyendra Kumar Mishra underscored the indispensability of leadership qualities for the equitable development of a nation. He hoped that the different perspectives of students on parliamentary democracy will resonate beyond the school and contribute to nation building. Subsequently, the parliamentary proceedings commenced wherein all the participants showcased extraordinary articulation and critical thinking during debates and discussions pertaining to the theme of "Ideas for a Better Tomorrow: India for the World". The debates and discussions encapsulated a litany of topics related to parliamentary democracy in India. The programme was envisioned to acquaint the students with the practices and procedures of Parliament, techniques of discussion and debate and develop self-confidence, leadership quality and showcase the finesse of their oratory skills. The valedictory ceremony concluded with the vote of thanks.

Sports Activities Organized by DPS Gaya

Sports augment self esteem and open up avenues for the development of children. Sports inculcate a spirit of teamwork and community participation in young ones and adolescents. ## The Joyous Christmas Celebration at DPS Gaya

Norman Vincent Peale said, "Christmas weaves a magic wand over this world, and behold, everything is softer and beautiful." With Christmas round the corner, celebratory fervour envelopes the premises of Delhi Public School Gaya. Christmas celebration for classes Pre-Nursery to Prep was organized on 22nd December 2023. The young toddlers performed Christmas Carols and marked the birth of Jesus Christ. The entire school was decorated with Christmas decorations, especially the beautifully designed Christmas Tree. The highlight of the celebration was the arrival of Santa Claus among students and the gifts distributed by him. The tiny tots enjoyed the festivities of Christmas with their teachers and friends. Mr. Satyendra Mishra, the esteemed Principal of the school underscored the significance of Christmas and praised the spirit of camaraderie among students.

Christmas Celebration at DPS Gaya's Junior Wing

The air was soon filled with the melodious tunes of Christmas carols as the Nursery kids took the stage, performing a delightful dance to the classic "Jingle Bell." Following this mesmerizing performance, the students of Prep spread joy with their rendition of "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." The sight of the Tiny Tots twirling and dancing in their fairy costumes was a heartwarming spectacle, showcasing the innocence and exuberance of childhood. The spirit of camaraderie continued with engaging games, such as the Segregation of Balls. The festivities reached a culinary high with the serving of a delightful fruit barbecue, adding a healthy and tasty element to the celebration. Capturing the essence of the joyous occasion, a designated selfie point became the hub of vibrant photographs, freezing moments of laughter and camaraderie. The smiles and laughter reflected the sheer delight of the children as they posed in their festive attire. As the anticipation reached its peak, Santa Claus made a grand entrance, spreading cheer and goodwill. Gifting goodie bags to each child, Santa added an extra layer of excitement to the festivities, leaving behind memories that would be cherished for years to come. The morning culminated in a heartwarming group photograph, immortalizing the joy, laughter, and togetherness shared during this enchanting Christmas Party at the Junior Wing. The event not only brought smiles to the faces of the children but also fostered a sense of community and celebration, making it a truly magical experience for everyone involved.

NAVIGATING THE BOARD EXAM STORM: A STUDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

As the Class X Board Examinations draw near at Delhi Public School Gaya, the intensity of preparation heightens for us, the students of Class X-D. Amidst the palpable pressure, I find solace in adopting a positive mindset and breaking down my study routine into manageable goals. Celebrating small victories keeps me motivated, making the challenging journey seem more achievable.

Crafting a realistic study schedule, balancing study time with brief breaks, has been pivotal. Collaborating with classmates in Section D through study groups has proven effective, allowing us to share knowledge and tackle complex topics collectively. Additionally, prioritizing self-care with regular exercise, sufficient sleep, and nutritious meals ensures a healthy mind-body balance.

Seeking insights from seniors, their advice on early preparation, practising sample papers, and seeking help when needed resonates deeply. DPS Gaya's emphasis on holistic development is evident in the varied achievements of students beyond academics, from sports to the arts.

In conclusion, as we navigate the board exam storm, challenges become stepping stones to success. With the support of teachers, collaboration within study groups, and wisdom from seniors, the students of Class X at DPS Gaya are ready to face the exams confidently.

GEFUNDEN

Ich ging im Walde
So für mich hin,
Und nichts zu suchen,
Das war mein Sinn.

Im Schatten sah ich
Ein Blümchen stehn,
Wie Sterne leuchtend
Wie Äuglein schön.

Ich wollt es brechen,
Da sagt' es fein:
Soll ich zum Welken,
Gebrochen sein?

Ich grubs mit allen
Den Wurzeln aus,
Zum Garten trug ichs
Am hübschen Haus.

Und pflanzte es wieder
Am stillen Ort;
Nun zweigt es immer
Und blüht so fort.

FOUND

By Johann Wolfgang von
Goethe

Once through the forest
Alone I went;
To seek for nothing
My thoughts were bent.

I saw i' the shadow
A flower stand there
As stars it glisten'd,
As eyes 'twas fair.

I sought to pluck it,--
It gently said:

"Shall I be gather'd
Only to fade?"

With all its roots
I dug it with care,
And took it home
To my garden fair.

In silent corner
Soon it was set;
There grows it ever,
There blooms it yet.
