

Farewell Day: Class XII

The entire staff, management and class XI students of DPS Gaya bade adieu to the outgoing students of class XII on 9th February at a grand valedictory ceremony. The programme got a start off with a captivating solo dance performance by a student of class XI which was specially dedicated to the seniors. This was followed by several power packed performances like group song, group dance and skit, all thoughtfully and painstakingly arranged by the students of class XI for their departing seniors. The special attraction of the event was a jesting stand up comedy which filled every heart with humour. Several students were awarded with specific 'Titles' matching his/her personality and character trait. The entire programme was an amalgamation of exuberance and nostalgia in which the teary eyed students reminisced the joyous moments spent together with their teachers and friends inside the lawns of the school. Principal Sanjeet Soni, in his speech, wished good luck to the them for their up coming board exam and all other future endeavours. The grand event culminated with a group photography session and a sumptuous lunch.

New Found Valentine's Day with Differently Abled Children

"Compassion is the basis of morality" Commemoration of New Found Valentine's Day with differently abled children of the society at Bodhi Tree Foundation an NGO, Bodhgaya. To inculcate the real meaning of love and compassion and instill a sense of sharing among the students, DPS Gaya organised a visit to the Bodhi Tree Educational Foundation, Bodhgaya campus on the 14th February 2019. The motive behind this was to celebrate Valentine's Day specially. Our students also explored the opportunity to interact with the volunteers of different countries including Spain, Malta, USA and Germany. To mark the occasion of love, our students shared cake, chocolates, flowers, cards, notebooks and other stationery items among the specially-abled children of secluded communities and spent quality time with them. Ms. Deo Peyari and Mr. Siddharth Ray, teachers of our school, led the students for the programme.

Fancy Dress Competition Class Pre Nur. & Nursery

Fancy dress competitions are an integral part of extracurricular activities in school. They are also the most awaited events that the children eagerly look forward to, as they allow them to live their fantasies by dressing up and acting like their favorite characters. Aiming to help the students of the Pre - Primary classes to overcome their stage fear, bring out their inner talent, give them a platform to build their self confidence and explore their inner strength, DPS Gaya conducted a Fancy Dress Competition for Class Pre Nursery and Nursery on 27th February. The show began with the encouraging words of Principal Mr. Sanjeet Soni, who welcomed all the children and their parents. He further stressed on the importance of such events adding that participation in such events fosters the creativity of each individual and benefits his social and emotional development. The theme of the competition was based on Gods and Goddesses, Clowns and Comedians, Characters from Vegetables like-Brinjal, Broccoli and Cauliflower and Characters from Electronic Gadgets like- T.V, Washing Machine, Laptop, Room Heater etc, The spectators were truly mesmerized as the little ones walked forward with lots of enthusiasm and excitement displaying their vibrant costumes and speaking few lines on the characters which they replicated. The competition brought an amiable ambience and each participant left the stage with prolonged deafening applause. In Pre Nursery class, Amoli Chopra got the 1st position, while Samridhi and Dakshita bagged the 2nd and 3rd positions respectively. In Nursery class the 1st, 2nd and 3rd positions were bagged by Pragya Kumari, Takshyajeet and Lavanya Shree respectively. Winners of the competition were awarded with medals and trophies, while the rest of the participants were encouraged by giving participation medals. The programme was graced by Mr. Ram Naresh Sharma (Chairman of Magadh Educational Trust) who complimented the tiny tots for their zealous performance. Sri Sanjeev Kumar, Pro Vice Chairman, Delhi Public School, Gaya and Madam Vijeta both had graced the occasion as the encouragement drivers. It was indeed a mesmerizing event which proved to be a great learning experience for the students and gave them a platform to explore their hidden talents.
