CBSE East Zone Swimming Championship 2019 - 20

Life is all about changing circumstances and swinging solitudes... Sports have multidimensional melange as well as fabulously fabricated opulence. And, Swimming of course, is not only cerebral but very truly ephemeral. CBSE essentially makes it elaborately democratic when it comes to organising differently diametrical, opulently spread out Championships all over this vast nation in three levels...Cluster, Zonal and the Mount Everest of all...the CBSE Nationals..... It's our proud privilege here at Delhi Public School, Gaya to have got the opportunity to host the East Zone Championship, 2019-20 between the 20th to 24th September, 2019. Participating School Teams and Individuals from the three states of UP, Bihar and Jharkhand are arriving since the morning of today, 19th September. The gait is visible. The glamour audible.... Excitement palpable. Preparations of our staff members almost flawless...to present the most affable red carpet welcome. See you all with the new dawn tomorrow which would be another chapter of the History in continuity..... May God of the crystal blue waters bless us all.....And all the gathering young talents.....

Opening Ceremony CBSE East Zone Swimming Championship-2019

Blue endless sky... intermittent clouds floating by... chirping birds resounding to register their imminent presence...and all competitors, ready and raring to go to OUTSWIM each other...Oh! What a scene of fluid opulence in the lullaby laced Half Olympic Games Sized Swimming Pool of Delhi Public School, Gaya...the sacred sacrament for the CBSE Zonal Swimming Championship - 2019. Today being the Inaugural Day for such a mega event of National Importance in the calendar of CBSE Sports, the hectic parleys and beautiful bonhomie both were palpably present and enthused one and all. Highly Honourable District Magistrate and Collector of Gaya, Mr. Abhishek Singh, IAS had, despite his extremely hectic schedule, accepted to Preside over the Opening Ceremony as the Chief Guest today amidst the calm cheer and bright brouhaha. Sri Sanjay Kumar, DIG, CRPF (Patna Range), Gaya, Bihar and Md. Mustafa Hussain Mansuri, D.E.O. Gaya both were present in all glory as the special guests to add meaning to the solemnity of the fabulous occasion. Overall Championship has been won by Lucknow Public College, Lucknow whereas the 2nd and 3rd positions have been clocked by DPS - Kalyanpur, Kanpur and The Study Hall, Lucknow. Slowly the hype and hoopla has died down after the very hectic preparations and presentations for this mega swimming event... making way for the anticipation of better strides to be taken in conjunction with the Times to come. May all be happy and remain relaxed, rejuvenated and recharged.

Charkha Making Activity: Class I

The children of Class I enjoyed creating a 'Charkha' which brought together the amalgamation of crest and Visual Arts just when Gandhi Jayanti was around the corner. They also learnt about the importance of Charkha in Gandhi Ji's life and the freedom struggle of India. They learnt how cloth can be made from this simple device and replicated the charkha with popsicle sticks. The Charkhas looked vibrant pasted on colourful sheets and the children felt proud about their creation.
